Foreword

With the strains of the commencement march still ringing in our ears, we, the Seniors of 1950, leave Blackstone High School taking with us the precious memories of four long but brief years. Long, as we looked at them through the eyes of trembling young Freshmen, but short as we view them with those of worldly Seniors.

Here we spent many happy days pursuing our studies or as it was in some cases, being pursued by such horrible monsters as books and exams.

In the pages that follow, the members of the annual staff have tried to present a complete and real picture of school life as each of us remembers it. It is hoped that for each student it will recall many happy memories.

Dedication

Mrs. Virginia Jordan

Because of her kindness and understanding, because of her patience and interest in teaching even the slowest of us, and because of her great versatility, we the annual staff of 1950, are happy to dedicate the 4th edition of "The Ivy" to our teacher and friend, Mrs. Virginia Jordan.

Here Is Our School

Oh, Blackstone High School
We thy children ever true,
'Mid our work and play
Sing our praise to you,
We strive together
To bring glory, day by day
To our dear old Blackstone High !

The teams that wear
Maroon and black upon the field,
With their spirits high,
They will never yield.
We'll back them ever
And now raise the battle cry,
Fight, fight for Blackstone High !

HISTORY

A dark cloud is cast over the horizon as we realize that we have come to the end of a perfect four years. It is with sincere happiness that we review the countless memories of high school days imprinted upon our minds--memories that we will cherish forever.

We entered B. H. S. one sunny fall morning. Half-scared and half-excited we tried to play the part of dignified "high schoolers."

On Homecoming day the Sophomores did their best to "put us in our places." They made the boys dress up like little girls while the girls had to wear old dungarees and baby bonnets. Carrying a baby bottle around all day was the most humiliating part of the whole thing. However, we all survived in good health and took our revenge on the next class.

In the basement of the high school you have probably seen an old ticket booth. That was the war stamp booth that we reconverted into a puppet stage. Under the direction of Mrs. Jordan we formed a puppet club and had a wonderful time producing puppet plays. Our first funds for the Junior-Senior Banquet were raised through this - the sum total of fourteen dollars.

During the next year we really became anxious about the money for our banquet, and the dark threats from the upper-classmen made us settle down to hard work. We sold magazines, sponsored dance after dance, and had class donations. Thus, by the 9th of April of our junior year, there was just the right amount for the banquet and dance.

From the "Oh's" and "Ah's" of the Seniors, we gathered that they thought our Dutch theme was superb. The places were marked with various colored tulips and underneath each flower was placed a pair of little Dutch wooden shoes. The banquet, followed by a dance at the Grange, will stand out in our memories as the highlight of our four years.

"Ever Since Eve," our Senior play, turned out to be one of the best productions ever presented in B. H. S. Miss Hammock spent many sleepless nights worrying whether or not R. B. would learn his lines or whether the set would fall down. I remember at dress rehearsal nothing seemed to go right, but Old Lady Luck, combined with the sincere efforts of our sponsor, the cast and stage crew, pulled us through; and everything came off wonderfully.

Now with graduation close at hand we realize that we have spent the happiest days of our lives at Blackstone High. We have made friendships that will not end with the completion of high school. As we leave, may we go with the promise to justify the faith which our teachers have placed in us. Let us accept the challenge which faces us and prove that we merit their faith.

The Junior Class met early in September with their advisors, Mrs. Moody and Miss Abernathy, to elect class officers and appoint committees.

During the magazine campaign we industriously worked and sold one hundred and thirteen dollars worth of magazines with Kay Drogaris as our top salesman. We also participated in such drives as the Junior Red Cross, March of Dimes and T. B.

For the Homecoming Day Parade we fashioned the class float with "Down With Lawrenceville" as our theme. Nancy Inge and Jackie Brugos represented the Junior Class in the Queen's Court.

We were indeed proud of Jackie Brugos who won the title "Miss Blackstone" at the Beauty Contest held on November 22.

By far, the greatest event of the year, however, was the Banquet and Dance which we gave at the Memorial Center on March 24 in honor of the Senior Class.

Happy to be back at old B. H. S.
After we had had a swell rest,
We sophomores started the year out with a bang,
And acted just like we didn't give a hang.
At the first convenience we had a meeting,
And decided to give the freshmen a beating.
We elected officers for the year
And ended the meeting with a cheer.
We have participated in the various drives
And we hope we helped save many lives.
Our float won first prize in the Homecoming Parade,
And then at the game we got paid.
We gave a basket of good cheer
To a friend who joined us this year.
As the years begin to pass
We'll still remember our Sophomore Class.

As we the Freshman Class of 1949-50, look back over the year, we recall many happy memories. One of these was the Rat Day Celebration which was held on Homecoming Day. The freshman girls looked comical wearing blouses wrong side out and backwards, shoes mismatched, and hair braided in ten plaits. The boys were dressed as girls, with high heels, pocketbooks and lots of make-up. All freshmen were identified by large signs carrying the caption "I am a Rat." The class exhibited a float in the Homecoming Parade that afternoon. Anne Jones and Betty Jane Oliver represented the class in the Queen's Court.

Jack Hardy, a member of the Freshman class, won third place for his essay on soil conservation in the national contest.

The class participated in several drives such as the Junior Red Cross, March of Dimes, T. B., and collected old clothes for the Foster Parents Campaign. In the magazine drive the class brought in $268 worth of subscriptions with Ann Thomas as the highest salesman.

And so we say good-bye to our Freshman year as we review all of our fun and good times.

Ivy Staff

Early in September, overjoyed with the prospect of starting work on the 1950 "Ivy", we rushed hither and yon, getting ourselves organized and ready to start work.

Our most exciting moment occurred when we chose our cover, and decided on the dedication. We decided that this year all our pictures would have a casual, informal look.

In November the photographer came to take the individual pictures and group pictures. Our Business Manager and his assistant worked diligently to obtain the desired number of ads.

On February 10 the annual was finally ready to be sent off even though it meant working 'till the wee hours the night before. The entire staff breathed a sigh of relief, realizing that our task was over.

Then started the long period of impatient waiting for the return of the books so we could really see the results of our work.

Ritchie, A. Coburn, D. Palmore, Mr. Parr, Advisor

The Student Cooperative Association Council, the most important organization in high school, consists of officers and representatives from each club, organization, and home room. Mr. Parr is the association's advisor.

This year, the council voted to give the seniors the privilege of having an honorary study hall, sponsored the annual magazine campaign along with the Red Cross, T. B. and Polio Drives.

The Council feels that the year 1949-50 has been a very successful one.

Beta Club

The Wrigglesworth Honor Society of Blackstone High School was established in the year 1939. This organization became a chapter of the National Honor Club, the Beta Club, in 1947, the purpose of which is: "To promote the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership among the high school students of America, to reward meritorious achievement, and to encourage and assist students to continue their education after high school graduation."

The purpose as set up in the original constitution of the local chapter is "to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in pupils of Blackstone High School."

With these objectives in mind, the Beta Club of Blackstone High School strives to hold its standards high.

The officers for the year 1949-50 are: Leroy Williams, President; Edward Williams, Vice-President; Marcella Hammock, Secretary; Nell Copley, Treasurer; Ella Mae Starkey, S. C. A. Representative.

Joanne Utley, a transfer Beta Club member from Chatham, completed our membership of six students.

The 1949-50 Beta Club had as its advisor Mrs. Kendrick, who was a great help not only as the club advisor, but also as a personal friend.

Though the Beta Club is not a money making organization, several dances were sponsored throughout the year in order that the Beta Club might have funds on hand if a need for them arose.

In April the tapping ceremony was held in assembly before the student body. Those students having the combined qualities of leadership, citizenship, and scholastic achievement were chosen. The new members were sincerely welcomed and it was hoped that they would maintain and continue the high standards set up by the old members and those who have long since left Blackstone High School.

Thespian Society

We, the Thespians, are members of troupe 891 of the National Thespian Society. Under the leadership of Mrs. Jordan, our sponsor, we have become one of the most active organizations in school. Our main objectives are to promote a love for drama, to present public performances, and to develop our talents. We feel we have accomplished all of these things by the splendid records our members have made here and away at school. Last year our contest play, "The Heritage of Wimpole Street", not only won first place in the district but went on to Charlottesville to receive top honors in the state. This year's play has also made a record of which we are very proud. Our club has indeed had a most successful year, and we feel we are leaving a great challenge to our future members.

Dramatic Club

Members: R. B. Barnes, Claudine Bogan, Beverley Borum, Dicky Bristol, Jackie Brugos, Celia Bures, Donna Casida, Anita Clark, Billy Coburn Agnes Coburn, Mary Coleman, Nell Copley, Elsie Krieder, Carolyn Crouch, Anne Crudup, Jane Daniel, Peggy Dews, Anne Dodson, Richard Drinkwater, Kay Drogaris, Ruthella Dukes, Betty Eades, Gladys Echols, Virginia Epes, Billy Fisher, Harold Fisher, Edward Fraher, Roland Garrett, Sally Gill, Marcella Hammock, Jimmy Hardin, Jack Hardy, Austin Harrelson, Nancy Inge, Bobby Irby, Emily Irby, Joe Irby, Caroline Jernigan, Anne Jones, Richard Jones, "Corky" Kitchen, Nancy Lane, Marjorie Lewis, Billy Longmire, Geraldine Lucy, Mary Martin, Velma Perkinson, Opal McGrady, Thomas Mitchell, Julie Moncure, Katherine Naugle, Kitty Nelson, Ruby Oliver, Anne Palmore, Dudley Palmore, Virginia Palmore, Mary Parr, Donald Pruitt, Betty Robertson, Geneva Robertson, Betty Spain, Ella Starkey, Elizabeth Stephens, Ann Thomas, Joanne Utley, James Waters, Edward Williams, Hardy Williams, Leroy Williams, Nancy Williamson, Lula Zaza.

We, the Dramatic Club of Blackstone High School, being composed of all students who have a love for drama, feel we are one of the most outstanding organizations in school.

We present many public performances not only because of their entertainment value but also because of the experience we receive while working these productions. Last fall with the Library Club we presented two one act plays, "Little Women" and "Tom Sawyer Whitewashes the Fence". At Christmas, some of our members gave a Christmas comedy.

In the Spring we presented "Dooley of the Amateur Hour" and many of our group took part in the Mardi Gras Pageant.

The chief objective of each of our club students is to become a Thespian. These are chosen according to their dramatic ability.

We feel we have had a most successful year and the fact that our roll greatly increases each year proves to us that we are a growing organization and are indeed carrying out our main objective "to promote interest in Dramatic Arts."

The officers of the club are: President, Claudine Bogan; Vice-President, Edward Powell; Secretary, Geneva Robertson; Treasurer, Edward Williams; and S. C. A. Representative, Rolly Garrett. Our sponsor is Mrs. Jordan.

Library Club

This year under the direction of our sponsor, Mrs. Kendrick, the objectives of the Library Club were revised to make it a service club. It was decided that continued membership in the club would depend upon whether or not a person showed interest in the club and helped in one of the three libraries in some way.

Many of the members of the club helped in getting the libraries in order, and in mending old books. Others have served as library assistants.

With the cooperation of the Dramatic Club, the Library Club gave a Book Week program consisting of two plays "Tom Sawyer Whitewashes The Fence" and "Little Women". Our annual Valentine's Dance was also given during the year and proved a great success.

We had a busy year and feel that we can hope for an even stronger club in the future.

The Glee Club of Blackstone High School, which meets every Tuesday and Friday, is composed of seventy members who were chosen by Miss Lucy Johns, the club director, at an audition early in the year.

This club has worked hard to learn many popular and religious numbers. Among the best known are "Hallelujah" from "Hit The Deck," "When Day Is Done," "Coming Thro' The Rye" and "In A Monastery Garden."

The most important program was held on February first, when we sang for the pantomime at a P. T. A. program given in honor of Founder's Day.

The Glee Club officers are, President, Ruby Anne Oliver; Vice-President, Joanne Utley; Secretary, Emily Anne Irby; S. C. A. Reporter, Harold Fisher.

Band

All is not play for the members of our band, but in reviewing their high school days, they will remember the fun and laughter that accompanied the long hours spent in practice, recollecting with pleasure their contributions to Blackstone High.

During the year, which was packed with activities for every player, the band was invited to nearby schools to participate in various programs. The main feature of the year was the annual trip to the music festival at Thomas Jefferson High School in Richmond. The members looked forward to this occasion with great anticipation and now remember it with even greater pleasure.

Although some very exciting trips were made by the band and they enjoyed all the activities of the year, it achieved its success only through long hours of practice. Every Tuesday and Friday the members were hard at work learning music.

At each successful performance the band gained a heightened popularity and prominence. Much credit is due to Miss Branson, our director, whose patience and understanding helped to produce the success which the band attained.

The officers of the band are: Harold Fisher, President; Edward Fraher, Vice-President; Betty Lou Spain, Secretary and Treasurer; Ansell Graham, S. C. A. Representative.

Hurry, hurry, hurry to meet the deadline! Rush that last minute report down to the "Courier Record."

As we look back over our year's work we laugh about the times we tore our hair because the cuts didn't come back, the times when the reporters forgot to write their articles, and the few times we contemplated murder to get enough news to fill the paper.

The Ram's Horn could not have met its scheduled publication date without the willing and helpful assistance from Miss Harding, our advisor.

This year we hope that the student body was pleased with our work. If so, we achieved our purpose of reporting faithfully to the students news of interest at Blackstone High School.

Pep Club

The Pep Club is an all girl organization. Members must show a willingness to work, a good school spirit and cooperation in the club's activities.

The Pep Club held its first meeting of the school year, 1949-50, on October 31. At this meeting plans were made for the first Homecoming which is to be an annual celebration. There was much discussion about this gala affair which proved to be a great success.

At the next meeting plans were discussed for the annual Christmas Dance. It was held December 19 at the Memorial Center. Walter Burnette's Orchestra furnished the music. The dance was a huge success and everyone had a great deal of fun.

The officers are: President, Nell Copley; Vice-President and S. C. A. Representative, Dudley Palmore; Secretary and Treasurer, Nancy Inge.

The sponsors of the Pep Club are Miss Colgin and Mr. Gill.

The F. F. A. is an organization of farm boys taking vocational agriculture. Mr. W. L. Thweatt is the instructor of the Blackstone High School F. F. A. It is a part of the National Future Farmers of America Association, being first a part of the L-A-N-D Federation, which in turn is affiliated with the State Association.

Locally, its program has consisted of developing a degree team, which studies parliamentary procedure. It has given programs before the Rotary and Ruritan Clubs, Parent-Teacher's Association and the school assembly. The chapter exhibited its members' products of their supervised practice program at the Federation Grain Show, tying with the Dinwiddie chapter in the number of prizes won. It has participated in the Forestry and Dairy Judging Contests. A team of three boys will make a trip to V. P. I. in June to take part in the State Association's Rally which is held annually. In addition to the above, their program has consisted of outings and banquets which are recreational as well as educational.

Home Economics Club

The potential husbands of these girls have a treat in store, for the girls are busy learning to sew, cook delicious meals, and to accomplish many other things. With varied things to do these girls have busied themselves this year with both fun and hard work. One of their numerous projects was the adoption of a school in Germany and many gifts and other necessities were sent to them.

It was not difficult for the Home Ec. girls to switch to that "new look" as you could tell by the Spring Fashion Show, in which the girls modeled clothes they had made.

They sponsored a beauty contest in November which was a great success. About thirty-two girls participated in the contest.

In the cottage, the bedroom has been repainted and the upstairs and downstairs halls have been papered, making the cottage very attractive. The Home Economics Club makes constant progress by promoting friendship and teamwork among its members, and by encouraging them to contribute to the home and community.

The officers are: President, Anne Palmore; Vice-President, Jackie Brugos; Secretary, Peggy Dews; Treasurer, Anne Dodson; S. C. A. Representative, Agnes Coburn. The sponsor of the club is Mrs. Anne Elmore.

Girls' Monogram Club

The Monogram Club, which is composed of five energetic girls who have won letters in basketball, has worked hard to promote interest in girls' sports. Several dances have been sponsored by the club in order to raise money to provide lockers for the physical education classes. The members have strived to create better relations between the pupils of Blackstone High School and neighboring schools.

The officers of the club are: Dudley Palmore, President; Anne Palmore, Vice-President; Gladys Echols, Secretary; Ella Mae Starkey, Treasurer; Nell Copley, S. C. A. Representative.

Our First Homecoming

Baseball 1950

At the writing of this article the 1950 baseball squad is a big question mark! Coach Bob Gill will have several of last years lettermen back. Among them are Penn Roberts, "Herb" Winn, Harold Hood, Ronald Roberts, Charlie Marshall, Jess Martin, and Harry Watson.

Besides the lettermen and reserves returning from the 1949 squad there should be a number of newcomers on hand when practice starts. If the gaps caused by graduation can be filled and if the team escapes injury, they should develop into one of the best baseball teams in Blackstone High School's history.

Acknowledgment

As we, the members of the annual staff, finally complete our work on the 1950 "Ivy" we realize with a sigh that another year at B.H.S. has been finished.

It is hoped that for each student this book will recall many happy hours spent with school mates and teachers.

It is certain that without the help of certain people we could not have made possible the publication of this book. We wish to express our sincere appreciation to the following:

Mr. Grubbs, our photographer, who did such a splendid job of photographing the school and students.

The Delmar Studios-for their fine job of printing "The Ivy."

Miss Hilda Abernathy, our advisor, whose assistance and advice did much to make "The Ivy" a wonderful book.

The Student Body, the Faculty, and the Administration for their interest and help throughout the year.

The 1950 Ivy Staff
